

SENIORS

April 9, 2020

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

I have many elderly friends, and am myself over 65 years old. During this crisis would it be too complicated to either allow us to shop by going ahead of the long line to get in, or possibly by setting special hours when we could come and thereby avoid the younger, hardier population altogether?

Thank you very much for keeping the store stocked, and for your consideration.

Sincerely yours,
Laurie Callahan