Cooked white rice, crunchy fried peanuts and fresh lemon juice are all you need to make this iteration of what Guest Chef and Coop Member Srishti Jain likes to call “Indian fried rice.” Join Jain and the Coop Cooking Squad for Plant-Based Indian Cooking on Wednesday, May 21, at 7:30 p.m. EDT on Zoom as part of the Coop’s monthly cooking series. Jain is a Californian-Indian food writer, recipe-developer, and vegetarian chef.

ABOUT THE CHEF

Srishti Jain, who grew up in the Bay area, fuses Western produce and Eastern cuisine. Her creativity with vegetables and pastry skills has expanded throughout her career, working as a chef and hosting supper clubs and pop-ups in San Francisco, New York, London, and beyond. She also writes a newsletter, inspiring home chefs to build their own menus and host more dinner parties. She currently resides in Brooklyn with her cat, Clam. Find her work on Instagram @srishti.jpg and her upcoming cookbook here: Make It Plant Based.
